OFFICE NOTE No. 1082

2190

To

W.

Please see the enclosed letter from the Accountant General P.W.D. No. 550 E. dated 1st July 1889, stating in reply to a reference made to him on the subject, that service books should be maintained for military subordinates employed in this department

2. The Civil Pension Code (or now the Civil Service Regulations) which is the primary authority for service books, does not apply to military men, and therefore it is not clear from code para 864 which quotes the Civil Pension Code whether service books are required for military subordinates or not. Please therefore obtain the approval of Government to the codification of the rule.

3. It also seems desirable to indicate more clearly in the code the nature of the events and incidents that should and should not be entered
