Mr J. Hannan, Supdg Engineer II Circle, was granted privilege leave for one month from 25th November 1888, which period expired on the 24th Decr 1888, but under ordinary circumstances he would have resumed charge of his duties on the 7th January 1889. the first working day after the Christmas holidays. Owing however to an accident to the steamer by which he returned, he he was unable to return to duty until the forenoon of the 11th January 1889, and he thus overstayed his leave by seventeen days. His claim to be considered to have overstayed his leave by only four days is inadmissible.

2. The Govt. accept Mr Hannan's explanation of the circumstances which led to his default, & are pleased to extend his privilege leave by one day which he had to credit, and also to exempt him from loss of appointment under Sec 165 Rule 10 of the Civil Leave Code. They are unable to exempt him from loss of pay for the period of overstay.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to move Government to reconsider their ruling in G.O. No. 643 W. dated 5th March 1889, that the pay claimed by me up to end of the Christmas holidays is inadmissible.

Put up with the memo No: 1775 C.E. d/5/4 & sent to C.E.W. [illegible] on the 15/4

2. I respectfully submit that my pay can only be stopped for the days on which I was absent without leave, and it is admitted that I had leave up to the end of the holidays.

3. There is no rule or precedent that that I know of, for disallowing my pay during the holidays.

4. There seems to be no reason for imposing a greater penalty for overstay in this case than would be imposed for overstay of any other description of leave.

5. I respectfully submit that when I got permission to avail myself of these holidays, I got it unconditionally. Had I known and it was impossible for me to know, what the penalty was for overstay, I could have easily obviated it by obtaining sanction to avail myself of my Privilege leave in continuation of the holidays, which would have answered my purpose equally well.

6. I trust that you will be good enough to back up my request.

Reports that has taken over charge of the Circle from Mr Todd

To W.

Mr. Hannan Supg. Engineer 2nd. Circle was granted privilege leave for one month from 25th. November 1888 which expired on the 24th. December 1888, and as Mr. Hannan only returned to duty on the forenoon of 11th. January 1889, he has overstayed his privilege leave by 17 days, and under section 165 of the Civil Leave Code, has ceased to retain a lien on his appointment, and has forfeited his allowance for the 17 days by which he exceeded his leave.

2. Under rule 10 of the section quoted, Government may exempt Mr. Hannan from loss of his appointment, if satisfied that the default was due to circumstances beyond his control, but that may not exempt him from loss of allowance.

3. Mr. Hannan, had however one day's additional leave at his credit, and Government if so disposed, may therefore extend his leave by one day.

Sir,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 578/C. dated 6th Instant, I have the honor to state that I received your permission demi-Officially to avail myself of the Christmas holi-days in continuation of my Privilege Leave. I was, therefore, not due back until 7th January 1889, the Christmas holi-days terminating on 5th and the 6th Sunday being a diesnon. I reported my arrival on forenoon of 11th. I have, therefore, only overstayed my leave four days. The delay was due to the Steamer in which I returned from Cairo, having had its machinery damaged by ~~a~~ rough weather experienced in the Mediterranean,

If Government consider the case a hard one, the only thing that can be done is to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to remit the forfeiture of pay for the holidays.

2. Mr. Hannan was not "granted leave" for the holidays and, as I understand the rules, such leave could not be formally granted. What actually occurred was that Mr. Hannan took advantage of a rule under which, if an officer is at his duty on the first working day after a holiday, no inquiry is made as to his whereabouts during the holiday and, in availing himself of this advantage, he took all incidental risks.

Dated 13th June 1889.

J. Hannan Esquire,
Superintending Engineer,
II Circle.

To,

The Chief Engineer,
Public Works Deptt,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to para 1 of Examiner's Office note No. 560 of 30th April 1889 communicated to me with your Memo. No. 2644, C. of the 5th Instant, anent the subject of the disallowance of my pay during the Christmas Holidays, which is as follows:– "If Government consider the case a hard one, the only thing that can be done is to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to remit the forfeiture of pay for the holidays", I beg respectfully to solicit that the Examiner's suggestion may be acted on

2. I know nothing of the rule referred to by the Examiner in para 2 of his Office Note to you above quoted. He does not quote the rule or say where it is to be found. It would therefore, be very hard to 'punish' me for contravening a rule I never heard of. The Examiner himself appears to be doubtful of his own interpretation as he uses the words "as far as I understand the rules".

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedt. Servt.,

J. H. Ummell
Superintending Engineer
II Circle.

For favor of any remarks you may have to offer with refce to para 2.

D.W.

I do not think this is necessary. Mr Hannan must know that there is no printed rule on the subject; but it is understood that if an officer &c &c.
The papers had better be referred to W for decision as to whether the case should go to the Govt of India or not.
It must be remembered that a ruling on this point* will almost certainly very seriously affect many officers, especially C.S. men
