Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to forward for favorable consideration the application which I submit herewith for 3 months leave to enable me to study with a view to passing my compulsory examination for promotion to major. I understand that an examination will be held about the end of November, and I find it impossible to devote the necessary time to study and discharge my duties as Sub Divisional Officer.

I have, etc.,

SIR,

Encs: 2)

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for special leave from Captain Lindley R.E. and to state that I have not recommended the grant of it for the following reasons -

- (1) I have already applied for one month's Privilege leave myself from September 4th, which I very much need for urgent private reasons, and it is impossible for both of us to be away from the Division at the same time.
- (2) Captain Lindley R.E. has had privilege leave so lately as last May, whereas I have had none for more than 2 years.
- (3) I understand that the Examination to pass which Captain Lindley has applied applied for the leave, is not urgent, and that a similar examination will be held next June in ample time for the purpose.

2. If he cannot obtain leave from September 1st it is of no use to him now, as the next examination takes place at end of November.
