Dated. 11th August 1889.

Reference. S.E.'s No 1024/KS dated 1st Instant on memo from the Ag
Chief Engineer.

Has the honor to furnish the following information.

The building was constructed in 1858. As regards accommodation, it has 2 rooms 20' x 16' and 16' x 16'.
It has verandahs all round, and there is a godown in the east verandah, and one in the West verandah. As regards the Circumstances

Circumstances in which it was appropriated to its present use, there is no documentary evidence, but it is believed to have been used as a rest house for D.P.W. Officers for about a year - subsequent to its construction, and to have been then turned into a library.

As regards the books. Their number is about five thousand. They come under the following heads.

1. Scientific.
2. Religious.
3. Poetry.
4. Histories & Biographies.
5. Novels.
6. Miscellaneous.

It is believed that they have been provided at the cost of subscribers as is now being done, but there are no records to shed light on this point.

Q.O/B

The Govt. have apparently no concern with the library for the accommodation of which a Govt. building has hitherto been allowed to be used. The books belong to the subscribers. If it seems them to remove the library to another place, in connection with a new club, they can do so. The building now used should in that case be sold if not required for any other public purpose, & the proceeds credited to the Govt.
