For orders -
 The rule should apparently be that, if an officer or subordinate relinquishes his appt.
 at the Presidency on proceeding on long leave or on transfer, & subsequently returns to the Presy. in a new appt.,
 fresh sanction should
 be obtained to the grant

 If however an officer or subordinate
 retains a lien on an appt. at the Presy.
 on proceeding on leave
 or transfer, & returns
 to that appt. at the end of his leave or special duty, no
 fresh sanction should

OFFICE NOTE No. 1207

To

W.

Under P.W.D. Code para 520, the grant of presidency allowance requires the orders of Government in each case; but in the case of officers and subordinates to whom presidency allowance has once been granted, it has, I find, for many years, been the practice of this office not to require renewal of the sanction when the officer returns to the presidency town after a period of service elsewhere, or after long leave.

2. I presume that there must have been some sort of authority for this practice; but I have not been able to trace any, and if the practice is to continue, it should, I think, be properly authorized. Please therefore obtain the orders of Government as to whether renewed sanction is required or not in such cases.

The Government considers that if an officer or subordinate relinquishes his appointment at the Presidency on proceeding on long leave or on transfer, and subsequently returns to the Presidency for a new appointment, fresh sanction should be obtained to the grant of Presidency allowance. But if he retains a lien on an appointment at the Presidency on proceeding on leave, or on transfer, and returns to that appointment at the end of his leave or special duty, a renewal of

of sanction to the grant of the allowance will not be required.

2. The Examiner need not question any such allowance now being drawn.
