With reference to the Progress Report of the Relief Works for the week ending 31st July 1889 has the honor to inform him that the rates of wages paid to a main station in the Pune Division are too low by one pie that is they should have been paid at Rs. 0-2-4 30-1-8 respectively. The wages should have been calculated at 72 rates for one set of Raji. The wages that are earned by piece workers should also be shown in future Progress Reports.
