From

Colonel W. B. Burton R.E.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER,

V CIRCLE,

To

THE Chief Engineer
P. W. Department.

SIR,

Enclosures

One Box of Farris gilt J. Pens was purchased for Rs. 14- in July 1889 for my use as the steel nibs supplied by the Stationery Department I cannot write with. A copy of the map in 12 sheets of Cantonment of Bangalore and Environs was also purchased for Rs. 7 for references in the same month. The audit of the charges in the Contingent Bill has been deferred by the Examiners pending sanction of Government to the same. I have the honor to request that the required sanction may be given as the articles purchased were indispensably necessary on public grounds.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

The pens ought properly to be disallowed
The idea of a pen in the L2 is further coming up to date for 14 annas worth of pens for his own use is extraordinary It is his own defect if he cannot write with the Stationery Office pens.
