8TH AUGUST 1889, No. 667, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., dated 31st May 1889, No. 476, Public.

ABSTRACT.—Passing orders in the case of 3rd-Class Hospital Assistant R. V. Moothiappa Pillay, who refused to proceed on duty to Berhampore ; and declining to accept his resignation.

READ—also the following paper :—

From G. BIDIE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 25th July 1889, No. O-426.

With reference to G.O., No. 476, Public, dated 31st May 1889, I have the honor to enclose, for the information of Government, an extract from a letter from the Government Solicitor, and to report that Rs. 400 (four hundred), being the full amount of the indemnity bond, has been recovered from 3rd-Class Hospital Assistant R. V. Moothiappa Pillai, No. 416, and credited to Government.

2. I beg to recommend that the hospital assistant be dismissed from the service, and his dismissal notified in the Fort St. George Gazette.

ORDER—dated 8th August 1889, No. 667, Public.

Hospital Assistant R. V. Moothiappa Pillai, having disobeyed orders to proceed to Berhampore on duty when directed to do so, is dismissed for insubordination, and his re-employment in the Government service is prohibited.

2. The Government does not consider it necessary to notify the dismissal in the Fort St. George Gazette.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From G. BIDIE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 5th August 1889, No. 471-O.

I have the honor to report that second-class Hospital Assistant N. Rungasawmy Naidu, No. 181, attached to the Central Jail, Coimbatore, who was selected, in common with other Telugu subordinates, for famine duty in Ganjam, has declined to proceed and tendered his resignation—vide copy enclosed.

2. He has since disappeared, and failed to acknowledge letters from this office. Having completed 11 years' service, he is not liable to any pecuniary penalty, and any punishment I could inflict would be utterly inadequate for such grave misconduct. I have learned that similar difficulty is being experienced in Bombay, in the administration of civil hospital assistants.

3. Such disgraceful conduct on the part of the hospital assistant at such a crisis deserves, in my opinion, to be visited by the highest punishment, and I therefore strongly recommend that he be dismissed from the service and declared unfit to hold any appointment under Government.

ENCLOSURE.

From M.R.Ry. N. RUNGASAWMY NAIDU, Hospital Assistant, No. 181, to the Secretary to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, dated Coimbatore, 17th July 1889.

With reference to the extract from orders, No. 109, dated 12th July 1889, by the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, transferring me to Berhampore, I beg to inform that I was in the district of Ganjam from July 1882 to December 1886. After severe illness I was recommended sick leave by the then District Surgeon, Dr. Vangeyzel, the present Chemical Examiner. I suffered from enlarged spleen, and my child is still suffering from the same complaint. As I firmly believe that my going again to that district would endanger my life, I beg to request you will kindly accept this as my resignation to the service.

ORDER—dated 26th August 1889, No. 714, Public.

In the circumstances stated, Hospital Assistant N. Rungasawmy Naidu's resignation cannot be accepted. He is dismissed from the Government service for insubordination in refusing to proceed to a station to which he had been posted and failing to reply to the Surgeon-General's letters. His further re-employment in the public service will be prohibited.
