ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), dated Simla, 13th June 1889, No. 203.

ADDENDA AND CORRIGENDA.

The following additions and corrections in the revised Ecclesiastical rules promulgated by Home Department notification, No. 103, dated the 20th June 1885, are published for information:—

Rule XVIII, Part I.—Substitute for the last fourteen words of the rule the words “ unless the fee required by Rule I of Part II (as interpreted in the Government of India’s Memorandum, No. 3-129, dated the 17th May 1886, Home Department, Ecclesiastical) has been paid.”

Rule XIX, Part I.—Cancel the first twelve words of note (3) as amended by Home Department notification, No. 12, of 15th January 1889, and add at the end of the note:—

“ The foregoing rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to railings round graves, which shall not be constructed until the requisite sum has been paid to cover the cost of repairs.”

Cancel Rule VI, Part II, and substitute as follows:—

“ The chaplain or other officer in charge of a cemetery may appoint an official mason, who may be granted a monopoly of the whole or any portion of the masonry work beneath the surface within the cemetery, subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon at the time of making the appointment; and may, subject to the same conditions, discharge him at his discretion. When an official mason has been appointed, he shall be responsible for the collection and payment to the chaplain or other officer as aforesaid of the requisite fees in respect of all work executed by him. Fees in respect of work in the cemetery not executed by an official mason must be paid in advance.”
