of much greater value than those of any unexperienced passed man such as would offer for the post.

2. Muthukumarasawamy Pillay - belongs to the Establishment of the South Circle - and was appointed as 2^d Clerk in the Bridge Works Office, on Mr Peters recommendation.

3. His substantive appointment is Clerk 1st Class 1st grade and not being a passed man, he had received increments of pay up up to B 19 only.

4 I recommend that the clerk may be allowed to remain in his present appointment, in consideration of his knowledge of the duties required of him, though he is not allowed to draw the full pay of the appointment. Mr Peters strongly recommends and I think it would be very inconvenient to the public service to turn out this man and post an ignorant one in his place.
