no 856 2760 Office of the Superintendent of Police Chinnvelly Railway Post Office

J. W. R. E. D. W.
25 AUG 89

From 22nd of August 1889 to J. B. Stevenson Esquire

District Superintendent of Police Chinnvelly District

Thro' the Inspector of Police The Chief Secretary to Government Madras
Sir

I have the honor to appeal to Government, as directed in Para II of G. O. no 248 of the 30th of January 1889, against what I consider a too high rent for the old serjeants' quarters now occupied by me, the rent for which has been increased from Rs 15 to 25.

The building in question was made over to the Police Department by the military authorities in 1883 for the Reserve Inspector, the rent charged for the same being Rs 3 and 4½, and from the year 1887 Rs 15. This has now been increased to Rs 25. The present Reserve Inspector in the year 1887 absolutely refused to live in it, on account of its dirty and lonely situation, and preferred, ⁱⁿ paying double rent rather than occupy it, rented a private building in the town.

The serjeant's quarters, he sub-rented to various Salt Inspectors at various rates of rent from 7 to 10 Rs. An reference being made to the Inspector General of Police

on this subject, the building was made over conditionally to the D.F.W. on 14.8.88 and the sub-Registrar's office removed into it.

When I was posted to this District in March 1888.

I found there was no bungalow for the Police Superintendent and in a short space of 9 months.
I occupied no less than 4 bungalows, two of which utterly collapsed during the last rains, the 3rd I had to leave on account of its very unhealthy situation. My wife and children were always ill in it and one of my children died in it. It is situated in the most unhealthy part of Palameottah Town. but I was obliged to occupy it until driven out of it by the above circumstances. I was obliged to take my present quarters as I had nowhere else to go, and so claimed the building again from the D. P. W. and the sub-Registrar was only too delighted to leave it.

My present tiny dressing room was used as a ^{cow} house. There was no road to it. The place was filthy dirty and was always spoken of as the "scorpion lodge". After spending a considerable sum on the building during the last 6 months, I have made it fairly habitable.

2766
I moved into the bungalow in December 1888. In June the then Executive Engineer Mr. A. S. Russell in his Letter No 1385 dated 29.6.88, before I ever thought I would occupy it, who knew the state the bungalow was in at the time, considered Rs 10 a month a fair rent for it.
Mr. Clark who succeeded Mr. Russell also thought a rent of Rs 25 per month too high. The rent of the largest bungalow in Palamcottah which has 6 large rooms, not including spacious dressing rooms and bath rooms, is only Rs 40 per month including large godowns, stables and coach houses.

The building I occupy has no stabling but only a miserable kitchen and two palatial latrines.

There is no dining room or drawing room but the two have to be combined in one room.

I further beg to bring to notice that the flooring of the bungalow is of cut stone which was obtained from the old Palamcottah fort and really cost nothing. The value of the same has now been added to the value of the building which adds 1200 Rs to the value of the same.

Under the above circumstances I have the honor to request that the present rent of Rs 25

2766
be reduced to a fair amount.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

your most obedient servant

A. C. C. C.

Forwarded to Chief Secy.

The Supt of Police should get out of these quarters as soon as possible he cannot retain the respect of his men or the people of Palamcottah & Tirunelveli by living in such a house.
