No. 989

From Henry Irwin Esq. C. I. E.

J. W. Brinsington Esq.,

Consulting Architect

to the Government of Madras.

To

The Chief Engineer

Public Works Department

Sir,

Enclosures. 1

With reference to your Memo: No. 41570 dated 17 September 1889, I have the honor to refer you to this office letter No. 925 dated 5 September 1889 and to state that from the allotment of Rs 10,259 made to "Additions and Improvements to the Medical College Buildings, Madras" Rs 1000 could now be surrendered from the savings anticipated, and that the grants for all others as far as can be seen at present would be utilized by the close of the financial year, unless perhaps that for the High Courts.

2.

I have also to state that the grants noted in the margin are urgently needed and to request that you may obtain sanction for them at an early date and that it is not possible

Grants now applied for

General Works & Plant 1400

Additions to the Dispensary
