stated by the Examiner in para paid in February, March, April and May 1888 and the request for refund appears reasonable.

3. The second sum is apparently income tax on Mr Target's whole salary for March 1888, a demand for payment of which was made by the Burmah authorities, and which after considerable correspondence has been paid by Mr Target under protest. The grounds on which he claims exemption are stated in the last para of his letter No 1182 of 28 September 1889.

Dated 20 October 89

No. 3291 of 20/10/89
3292 to 1881 PR

Requesting to address the Burmah administration with regard to the refund of certain sums paid by Mr. Target on account of income tax for years 1886-87 and 1887-88.

I know nothing about the claim; but as Mr. Target twice refers to me in terms which suggest that I do, it is necessary to explain that both his references are misleading. I have never said that Rs. 7-3-9 or any other sum was due to Mr. Target; what I have said is that neither that sum, nor any other, was due to him by Madras; and that I knew nothing about his claims against Burma. I never suggested that Mr. Target should apply to Burma for a refund of Rs. 7-3-9 or any other sum; what I did say was that if Mr. Target thought he had any claim against Burma, he should submit it to Burma and not to me. I know absolutely nothing about his claims against Burma.
