Sir, 3360

With reference to your office no: 3184. G. & 13. XI. 89, requesting to be furnished with the names of continuous service Royal Engineer officers who may desire to go to Chatham for the course of instruction which commences on the 1st April 1890, I am directed to forward copy of an Endorsement sent to the local Military Dept in reply to a similar request.

2. I am to add that the Adjutant General, Madras Army, has been addressed regarding Capt Lindley.

No 5396. C. & 20. XI. 89.

"Returned to the Mily Dept with the intimation that there is no continuous service R. E. officer serving in this dept: who should be ordered to Chatham next year. Capt Lindley R.E. should go but as he is not a continuous service officer the Adjutant Genl: will be addressed regarding him. Capt Love R.E., Principal, College of Engineering, is desirous of qualifying for promotion. It is suggested that the Educational Dept head. be addressed regarding him."

Note. By sending a copy of the foregoing Endorsement Lindley will be indirectly informed that there are two officers who can go.
