P. Venkannah late clerk Kistna - Eastern Division, whose application for pension is at present under disposal was a permanent clerk in the Gudivada sub-division of the Kistna eastern Division up to 7th. February 1883, on which date that sub-division was formed into a separate, temporary division, in which he remained until 28th. February 1887.

2. In submitting his application, the Superintending Engineer treats this service as permanent, though it has always hitherto been held to be temporary service, vide G.O. No. 884 W. dated 23rd. March 1887.

3. The case is exactly similar to that of D. Lakshmikantha Row, clerk Kistna Eastern Division (vide G.O. No. 3203 W. dated 10th. October 1888) and the Superintending Engineer's action is presumably based on this order, but the terms of the order do not warrant any general application of the principle on which the order was based; and I therefore solicit specific orders on the present case. If approved by Government, P. Venkannah will be considered as having been supernumerary on the permanent establishment from 8th. February 1883 to 28th. February 1887, the period of his employment in the Gudivada temporary division and his service for pension calculated accordingly.

4. Early orders of Government are solicited.
