PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following papers—

Office note from the Secretary to Government P. W. Department d/18th October 1889 No. 4744C suggesting that the attention of the President District Board Chingleput may be drawn to the most unsatisfactory condition of the important railway-feeder between Poona-mallee and the Avadi station and also to the quite impassable state of the road between Madras and Poona-mallee.
 Letter from the President District Board Chingleput d/4th November 1889 Reference on No. 192 of 1889 reporting on the state of the Avadi-Poonamallee Road and requesting Government to sanction the payment of a portion of the tolls levied by the Madras Municipality or a contribution from Provincial funds or to permit the District Board to establish their own toll-gates near the Madras toll-gates \ (Codes

Order thereon of 5th December 1889 No 2841 & this Recorded.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council will allow the Chingleput District Board a special grant of Rs 20,000 from Provincial funds for 1890-91 to be spent on the Poonamallee and Inamur Roads within 10 miles of Madras; but he cannot promise further assistance to the Board or recede from the previous order disallowing their claims to a share in the Municipal tolls. It must be remembered that if the local fund Roads are cut up by Madras travellers the ryots and traders whom the District Board represents benefit materially from their proximity to the markets of the Presidency town.
