Ans.

For orders.

If the proposal to sell the crane be approved, it would be well perhaps to place a reserve price on it.
Otherwise it will probably sell for less than the price of the materials.

The crane is apparently an old one, of inferior description, & as cranes of superior patterns can now be obtained at very moderate prices, I think the reserve price must be left to the discretion of the S.T.

Sir,

ENCLOSURES.

There was a 5 Ton Crane in the Trinervelly Division, it was transferred to the Vaigai Bridge Work in Madras in June 1889. It is not required in Trinervelly nor in Madras, as it is a lumbering useless old crane - It is not in fact wanted any where in the Circle nor is there any one who would buy it. If it is to be sent to Madras, the railway charges only would amount to Rs 195.
2. It is not known when the Crane was first received and what was its original cost and it does not appear worthwhile sending it to
