TO, THE Chief Engineer
P. W. Department

Dowlaisheram, 7th December 1889

SIR,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the building formerly used as a Post office at Ganjam in the Ganjam District which was handed over to this Department in 1887 being no longer required has been seriously damaged during the recent floods. The Rushikulya River has cut away the high ground which formerly stood between the office and the River and has carried away half the office leaving the other half in such a condition that it may be expected to fall with any slight fresh.

2. To save total loss, I have permitted the Ganjam Division Officer to sell by auction what remains of the building, if he still apprehends danger & I have the honor to request your sanction to this being done. The value of the building will be reported shortly.
