PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper &

From the Public Works Department, 21 January 1889, No. 283C.

From the Accountant General, Madras, 14th February 1889, No. 2289.

In reply to your reference on No. 87 dated the 29th January 1889, I have the honor to state, that, as the existing rules have except in the isolated instances in question, worked sufficiently well and are calculated to meet real requirements, I do not think that much will be gained by the introduction of the proviso suggested by the Examiner.

2. Any specially urgent case may, as stated by the Comptroller General, be a matter of special arrangement.
