Revenue 1889. De. 1889
Board of Revenue
(Separate Revenue),
MADRAS.

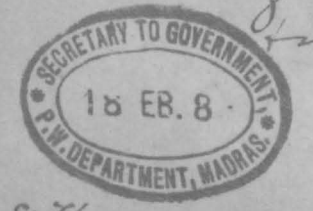

Endorsement No 997

Transferred to the Public Works Department with the remark that as the design and specification furnished by the Deputy Director of Indian Marine do not satisfy the requirements of the Salt Department the further consideration of the question of the provision of a steam launch in lieu of the "Beatrice" has been ordered to lie over until Mr Bliss's return from leave in April next.

In
In reply to your letter no 2087 of 7. Nov.
1888

1889. I am directed to state that the plans & specifications therewith forwarded, for the construction of a small steel steam launch to ply on the Donelson Canal, do not satisfy
the requirements of the Salt Dept. It has been decided
therefore by this Govt, to defer the further consideration of the matter until the return from furlough in April
next of Mr. H. W. Bliss, the permanent Commissioner of Salt Revenue, when ~~also~~ a definite decision will probably be arrived at.
