Sir,

With reference to para 5 of G.O.

Item 16, requesting me to explain the circumstances under which I took an advance of Rs 600 in January 1888, I have the honor to inform you that I returned from Furlough on the 13th December 1887, and in the salary bill for that month a sum of Rs 725-13-11 was claimed on my behalf as pay of Executive Engineer, 1st Grade, plus subsidiary leave pay and Officiating allowance. On the 3rd January 1888 when sending in the pay bill to the Executive Engineer, I asked him to advance me the sum referred to above from the sum claimed on my behalf to be adjusted on receipt of the audited Bill, in the same month, as there could not be any doubt in the audit of the claim. Please see para 473(1) & (8) C.

Item 18— The Executive Engineer, Gudivada Division states that the money was sent to the Delta Super=intendent by the Taluk Overseer for disbursement to Coolies who worked on Treasury Office at Gudivada, and the certificate in the muster sheet has been since altered and signed by the Delta Superintendent himself.

Item 51— For the recovery of Rs. 5-8-please see Eastern Division accounts for December 1888, in which, the Executive Engineer promised to effect the necessary recovery.
