4TH MARCH 1889, No. 635 W., PUBLIC WORKS.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Establishment.

READ—the following paper :—

From G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Calcutta, 21st February 1889, No. 502 G.

I am directed to forward, for information, draft of a standing order which will shortly be issued providing against the unmerited supersession of an officer who, owing to causes beyond his control, does not pass the examination required by para. 10, chapter II, volume I, of the Public Works Code, and to observe that the Government of Madras may find it convenient to adopt the rule.

ENCLOSURE.

P.W.D. Code, Vol. I, 5th Edition.

CHAPTER II.

Add as para. 11A :—

11A. Cases may occur in which, owing to the exigencies of the public service, illness, or want of time or opportunity for convening a committee, an officer's examination has been delayed; or an officer may have been employed on work, other than construction (such as survey or office work), in which he had little or no opportunity of qualifying himself for the examination laid down in para. 10, and he may either decline to appear or fail to pass the examination in consequence. In such cases, in order to avoid unmerited supersession, the Superintending Engineer should record his opinion as to whether the delay or non-appearance or failure to pass has been due to causes beyond the officer's control or not. This opinion should be immediately forwarded for orders to the authority which makes promotions on the list to which the officer belongs, and a decision should be recorded by that authority.

ORDER—dated 4th March 1889, No. 635 W., Public Works.

The Government resolve to adopt the rule, which will accordingly be embodied in the Public Works Code.
