No 819 P.R

mitted to Government with the suggestion that the Examiners may be authorized to pass this and similar charges without a special reference in each case

2. No means for conveyance of luggage or stores other than coolies is available, and the reimbursement of actual expenses in such a case appears to be in accordance with the spirit if not with the letter of Section 60 of the Civil Travelling Allowance Code

3. With regard to the order for the use of special means of conveyance being given before hand, it is obvious that under the circumstances stated the order to use such means is involved in the order to travel

The circumstances of the case are the same as those of the cases reported upon in my office notes Nos. 2022 and 2336 dated respectively 6th. August and 28th. September 1888. These cases are apparently not such as are contemplated by section 60 of the Civil Travelling Allowance Code and its rule, and Government can neither sanction the allowance in this case, nor pass any general orders such as the Supr. Engineer suggests.

2. If Government desire to deal more liberally with such cases, it will be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Government of India
