There is no rule under which the time spent on leave is to be treated as such an order but on the other hand there is no rule saying that such leave counts as duty, and the T. has always held the former view.

The question to be decided is,
 should a person be made to the point of order? or is it a leave? (W)
 & be considered as (W)
 not duty.

To W

The S. has held that 29 days leave only were admissible, &
 I suppose he has informed Capt. Snellery.
 The arrangement proposed is apparently the only one possible.

He can begin his leave
 but the Easter holidays cannot be taken in addition this must be clearly understood

It will be as well to warn him that owing to the absence of many officers the Staff is short of officers and should any leave be given such as to be transferred the leave may be cancelled

There is nothing to show that Captain Lindley has been informed that he will have only 29
days p.l. at credit on the 23rd prox. He asked for a month
and a week and 29 days may not be sufficient if the leave is wanted for any special purpose.
The Easter holidays will probably be from the 18th to the 23rd April.
For orders whether the leave may be granted, and if so whether the Subg Engr. may first be asked whether Capt
L. desires to avail himself of the 29 days' leave.
