Q13

N. 608.

High Court of Judicature, Madras, 1st March 1889.

From

J. M. Horsfall, Esquire, Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable J. H. Price, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

Sir,

The District munsifs' court of Trichkivilur in the district of South Arcot, has hitherto been held in the mantapam of a temple hired at a rent of Rs. 10 per mensem. The Court was established in 1884 on the abolition of the South Arcot Sub-Court.

2. The District Judge now reports that owing to the sacred character of the building, pariah suitors and witnesses are not allowed

to enter the Court and that the District Munsif is obliged to go to the entrance of the Mantapam to take their evidence; and that moreover the beating of drums and other music in connection with the worship in the temple interrupts work. There is no private or Government building in the town available for a Court-house.

3. The file of the Court in 1888 was 640 ordinary suits and 565 small causes, the average institutions in the regular munsifs' Courts in the Presidency in 1887 being 567 ordinary suits and 739 small causes. The new Viluppuram-Vellore Railway which it is believed will be opened next year, will pass right through the jurisdiction of the Court with a station at Trichkivilur. Both the town town and Court will then increase in importance.

4. In these circumstances, I am directed to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the construction of a Court-house on the existing type designs at Trichkivilur.

5. As to sites, the District Judge submits, there is no difficulty.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

your most obedient servant,
Srinivasan
Registrar
