With reference to para. 3 of report from Controller of Military Accounts, recorded in Proceedings of Government, No. 2233 W., dated 21st July 1888 (Military Department No. 5341, dated 6th August 1888), I am desired to state, for the information of Government, that the wing of the 2nd Battalion, Bedfordshire Regiment, did not occupy the Officers' Mess at Fort St. George as the building was undergoing repairs throughout the time they were stationed there.

2. The Commanding officer's quarters were used as a mess-house at a rental of Rs. 50 per mensem.

From Brigadier-General M. PROTHEROE, C.B., C.S.I., Quartermaster-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 8th January 1889, No. 95-A.

I am desired to solicit that the subject of the reduction of rent for the Officers' Mess, Fort St. George, when occupied by only a wing, British Infantry, may be again submitted for the reconsideration of the Government of India, as apparently when coming to the decision recorded in G.O., No. 2832 W., dated 12th September 1888 (Military Department No. 6639, dated 3rd October 1888), Government was not aware of the fact stated in this office No. 2956 A of the 15th August last that the wing, 2nd Bedfordshire Regiment, did not occupy the mess-house during the time it was stationed in Fort St. George.

2. I am further to add that the wing being detached makes no difference in the amount charged to the head-quarters wing for the mess-house at Bellary, and that the regiment now concerned—the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry—incurs a monthly expenditure of Rs. 230 for rent alone (viz., at Bellary Rs. 130 and at Madras Rs. 100), thus exceeding by Rs. 30 the amount received from Government, nothing remaining for the establishment which this Government allowance is intended partly to cover.
