8TH JANUARY 1889, No. 1, FINANCIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 8th January 1889, No. 1, Financial.

As orders have now been passed on all budget estimates of revenue and expenditure for 1889-90, the Government will briefly review the figures before them so far as Provincial accounts are concerned.

2. Until the audited November accounts are received, any estimate of the closing balance of the current year can be only approximate, but there seems to be good reason for believing that the revenue will exceed the outlay by more than eight lakhs. Adding this sum to the opening balance of 1888-89 (Rs. 53,91), a total of some 62 lakhs is reached, and this may, for the present, be adopted as the amount of the closing balance.

* REVENUE.

	Thousands of rupees.
Principal Revenue heads	259,10
Civil departmental and Miscellaneous heads	17,59
Civil works and Irrigation	2,90
Adjusting heads	3,04
Total	282,63

3. The Provincial revenue in 1889-90 is estimated, as shown in abstract* in the margin, at 282,63; the expenditure at 271,87; leaving a surplus of 10,76.

EXPENDITURE.

Direct demands on the Revenue	66,95
Civil departmental and Miscellaneous heads	146,32
Irrigation and Tank restoration	33,00
Civil Works	23,78
Contributions	1,82
Total	271,87

4. In the order on the Educational budget, the provision of an additional lakh of rupees proposed by the Director of Public Instruction was reduced to Rs. 50,000, and in G.O., 5th November 1888, No. 815, a contribution of Rs. 1,14,000 for the salaries of Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Schools was imposed on Local and Municipal Boards. The Governor in Council now finds himself in a position to modify these orders. A sum of half a lakh will be added to the Educational grant under the head Grants-in-aid; but the Director will be at liberty to propose transfers to other heads of the grant if he desires to do so. The Local and Municipal Boards will be relieved of the contributions above referred to, and the salaries of the Sub-Assistants will be met from Provincial revenues. The Government, however, desire that the amount by which local and municipal funds are relieved shall be devoted to the extension of primary instruction.

5. The following additional alterations will also be made to the budget estimates of 1889-90:—

XX. Medical—Lunatic Asylum receipts — 8

12. Registration—

For pay of Inspector-General at higher rate + 1

19. Law and Justice—Courts—

For raising the pay of the process establishment + 45

„ revision of establishment of the Small Cause Court + 4

„ salary of a barrister Puisne Judge for 10 months + 37
