READ the following papers:—

Official Memorandum to the Collector of S. Arcot dated 18 July 1889:-

The Collector of South Arcot is requested to report on the present condition of the monument in memory of Mr. Stevens referred to on page 377 of the South Arcot District Manual, and to refer to the state of this monument in his annual cemetery report for future years.

From the Collector of South Arcot. No. 2322/107 dated 9th September 1889:-

Adverting to Reference, Ecclesiastical Department, dated 18th July last, I have the honor to state that the monument in memory of Mr. Stevens therein mentioned was inspected on the 17th ultimo by the Deputy Tahsildar of Vanur in whose range it is situated. He reports that here and there at the bottom the plastering has given way and that the inscription is too much faded to be easily discernible. Steps will be taken to have the necessary repairs executed
