Read the following

From the Suptg. Engineer IV Circle. H. E. No: 54 E. W.D. 1st February 1889.

In the statement above recorded, the Suptg. Engineer IV Circle surrenders Rs 60 from the lump sum grant for original works and Rs. 3/5 from that for repairs under Excluded Local, Port Funds; but does not specify the Division or the service head from which the surrenders are proposed. There is however no grant under Port Funds for any other Division in the Circle than the West Coast and the only service head under which grants have been provided is Miscellaneous Public Improvements. The surrenders proposed by the Suptg. Engineer are therefore ~~proposed to be~~ ^{resumed} from the grant for Miscellaneous Public Improvements
West Coast Division, and replaced at the disposal of the Financial Department, as follows:—

West

West Coast Division
 Miscellaneous Public Supts. } Rs

 and "Tools and Plant" } 92

Total Rs. 467

2. It is hoped that the Statements of ^{the nature should be} accounts deposited that may be submitted by the Supts. & others will be prepared more carefully in future.
