Sir,

Encls. one

With reference to the despatch of the Secretary of State No. 7 of September 27th 1888, I have the honor to inform you that when forwarding my notes to the India Office I suggested that I should take them to India when I returned.

I have neither heard nor seen any thing of the notes, nor had any communication from the India Office from that time until the present despatch.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedient Servant.
