OFFICE NOTE No. 1795-

To

W.

With a view to reducing the inconvenience caused by the congestion of standing orders in certain parts of the code, I propose, subject to the approval of Government, to reprint here and there entire pages of the worst parts so that entire pages of the present code may be cut out and the revised pages inserted.

2. The particular parts that I would propose to deal with now are pages 8, 13, 26, 27, 41, 59 & 60, 66, 71 to 74, 82, 85 to 88, 90 & 91, 101, III, 130, 133 and 136, 141, 143, 151, 167, 222, 273, 278, 280, 286, 355 and 358. If you think any others might be reprinted, or any of the above omitted, would you please point them out, supposing that is that the proposal is generally approved.

3. I estimate that at the Government Press valuation rates for such work the entire cost will be under Rs.50.

4. Should the proposal be ap - proved, I shall in due course circulate proofs of the revised pages, with a standing order introducing them.
