The plan of the Choultry was approved in the Rev. Dept.
vide go. no 1569 W of 6.6.90 - The P.W.D.
was not asked for an opinion on this part of the work -

This dept. had only to do with the new apothecary's quarters which Sir S. Ramaswami built in lieu of those given up to him -

The meeting on the 10th from before in the P. M. P. to Dear Sir, I am Yours faithfully,
L. S. S.

Please see the enclosed copy of a letter from Gaster to Sir R.
Woodley, Chetty and of the P. M. P. and the power stops the work pending the completion of the question raised. I think that the papers are in your Dept. if so will you kindly have them got together and bring them up personally at least on Tuesday or the day after to me.

has in order that I may do so.

Yours sincerely
Rudolph W. H. H.

My dear Sir

My attention has been attracted by Sir R. S. Muddell's new choultry. It is not (apparently) being built according to the design sanctioned by Govt. & should be stopped at once or it will be too late. Moreover he has built a row of bazaars or something like them in front of the building. These must be removed immediately. Kindly call the attention of Mr. Brown and Mr. D. P. to the matter concerning the matter up in Council and kindly as we much wish to see R. Muddell himself.

Yours sincerely
J. H. G. H.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following papers:-

- (1) Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (L. R.) of 26 March 1890 no 2023 mis. - submitting with Board's support, letter from the Collector of Madras suggesting the resumption of the land granted for the choultry proposed to be built by Sir Savalai Ramaswamy Mudaliar as no plan of the work has yet been submitted.
- (2) Letter from Sir S. Ramaswamy Mudaliar A. G. R. C. & E. of 28 March 1890 stating that new quarters for the Quaternary Hospital Assistants have been completed & requesting that orders may be issued for their removal to the new quarters & to vacate the old quarters for the work of construction.
- (3) Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (L. R.) of 3 April 1890 no 2197 mis. submitting to Govt. letter from the Collector of Madras forwarding plans received from Sir Savalai Ramaswamy Mudaliar for the choultry proposed to be built by him.
