Current No 24 Apr 1890

Resubmitted to the Hon Member, with remarks that the necessity for the temporary clerks is explained in the notes attached to No.
1010 W of 11-4-89.

A Special Estab. has recently been sanctioned to expedite the preparation of estimates for works in wards Estates in Ganjam, & this will doubtless throw additional work on the Engrs Office.

Phed
14.1.90 W

The clerks have been retained throughout 1889-90 apparently to deal with estimates which have not come in. There was I think a large surrender of Grant of Wards funds ^{this year} necessitated by delay in preparing estimates.
The clerks are I suppose still necessary, but the necessity arises from the default to carry out the works & to spend the money allotted. This is most unsatisfactory, and has been going on now for several years.
The Dept. ought not to undertake work w^h it cannot do. There is always some plausible excuse but there should be no need for the excuse at all.
I pass the draft.
