OFFICE NOTE No. 3027.

To

E. W.

With reference to your memo No. 2149 C. dated 7th. May 1890, directing Superintendent Engineer 5th. Circle to submit applications for pension on behalf of certain clerks and draftsmen of the late Presidency Division, who have elected to retire, I beg to inquire under what rules these clerks and draftsmen are to be retired, as there will be no saving to cover the cost of their pensions, owing to their appointments being filled in in the Military Works Branch, so that they cannot be retired under the rules applicable to compensation pension, vide articles 468 and 471 of Civil Service Regulations.
