GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Account.

READ—the following papers:—

G.O., dated 23rd April 1890, No. 1202 W., Public Works.

Read—the following Office note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 14th April 1890, No. 2100.

Before I proceed to embody the rule of the "Provident Fund Institution for Railway Clerks" in the Madras Code, as approved in G.O., No. 3528 W., dated 11th December 1889, will you please ascertain from the Government of India whether clerks and accountants appointed under the terms of Public Works Department Resolutions Nos. 299 G. and 2045 G. of 31st January and 16th July 1889 respectively are obliged to join the fund, or whether subscription to it is optional. I ask the question because the expression that "these rules do not admit of voluntary deposits" used in the Government of India letter No. 2953 G. of 16th October 1889 forwarding the rules seem open to the interpretation that subscription is compulsory, whereas in Government of India Resolution No. 299 G. of 31st January 1889 it was stated that the clerk would "be permitted" to join the institution.

2. I am disposed to think that what is really meant by the above quoted expression in letter No. 2953 G. is that if a clerk joins the fund he must conform strictly to the rules and must subscribe the fixed percentage neither more nor less, but I do not think that he is required to join the fund unless he likes.

3. Supposing that subscription to the fund is not, in the first instance, obligatory, another point which might conveniently be settled before codification is, whether a clerk after once subscribing to the fund may afterwards discontinue and again renew his subscriptions at his pleasure.

Order—dated 23rd April 1890, No. 1202 W., Public Works.

Ordered to be forwarded to the Government of India with request that the information asked for by the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, may be furnished.

Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 19th May 1890, No. 1291 G.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your No. 1203 W., dated 23rd April 1890, requesting information on the subject of compulsory or optional subscriptions by clerks and accountants to the Provident Fund Institution, and in reply to state that it was the intention of the Government of India to make all clerks and accountants appointed to Railway offices wholly liable to the rules of the State Railway Provident Fund, as explained in para. 2 of Public Works Department Resolution No. 299 G., dated 31st January 1889, and that under these rules the subscriptions of all employes of the above mentioned classes are compulsory.

ORDER—dated 10th June 1890, No. 1611 W., Public Works.
