From,

J. D. Grant Esq
Sup^r Engineer 1st Circle

The Secretary to Government
P. W. Department

Dowlaishwaram 11th December 1889

Sir,

With reference to G.O. NC 3342 of 25th November 1889 I have the honor to forward a letter from Mr. C. M. Smith, pointing out that so much extraordinary leave would not have been required had it not been necessary for him to wait in Madras till his destination was finally settled.

2. From the dates given by Mr. Smith it would seem that he spent 6 days waiting for a steamer, and is considered an extraordinary leave for those days.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient St

J. D. Grant

Sir,

Referring to your No. 2188 of 5th December 1889. I have the honour to request to be allowed to make the following remarks: 1 In his office note No. 1623 dated 13 November 1889 the examined failed to place before Government the exact state of my case.

2 I was originally posted to the Kalluru Division (vide Gazette 7th October 1889) and landed in Madras with the intention of joining as soon as possible. On my reporting myself Myself however at the S. W. Secretariat I learnt that that appointment had been cancelled and that I should have to wait in Madras until the following Gazette came out.

3 In the Gazette of 5th November I was posted to charge of this (Godavari Eastern) division. I was therefore necessarily detained in Madras from the date of my arrival till the date of the ^{the receipt} ~~issue~~ of the Gazette (6th November) viz. 6 days. Even supposing I had been able to start on the day after the issue of the Gazette.

This I think was obviously impossible and I do not think the 12 days extraordinary leave granted by the Secretary of State expired on the 3rd Nov.

Government would have expected it. The first steamer by which I might have started left on the Friday (the 8th) I believe. This only gave me two days for necessary preparation. I found it impossible to leave by that. I then asked for sufficient leave to enable me to start by the Mail Steamer on the Wednesday (the 13th) I think therefore that the statement is wrong in stating that I was absent without leave for the above period.

I beg further to represent that the necessity for extension of my leave arose entirely

177/5
from the cancelling of appointment to Millers Division and my having to await the issue of a new Gazette; within addition - the accident
of my being dependant on Steamer transit, which certainly delayed me an extra week.
It is I think unfair that I should have to suffer for this delay in my posting. I have therefore the honor to ask you to represent my case to the Engineer with a view to its being placed in its proper light before Government.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant.

OFFICE NOTE No. 141.

To W.

Your Office Note No. 5905 C
dated 18th December 1889.

There does not seem to be in the circumstances of Mr.
Smith's case anything exceptional which would even justify an application to the Government of India for relaxation of the rules in his case. Waiting a few days for orders on return from furlough is an ordinary every day incident, which gives no claim to exemption from the operation of ordinary rules, even where the necessity for waiting is entirely due to circumstances.

circumstances beyond the officers' control; but in this case the change of posting and the consequent necessity of waiting appear to have been entirely due to an extension of leave given at the last moment for Mr. Smith's convenience.

Moreover it is not clear why Mr. Smith should have waited for the Gazette to appear.

It is presumed that he knew where he was to go before the Gazette appeared, and could have got authority to leave by the steamer of the 8th (or 9th) had he been anxious to do so.

2. With reference to Mr. Smith's suggestion that the facts of the case were not fully stated by me, the facts were correctly stated as far as known to me.

I could not state facts which were not within my knowledge,

From

The Supt Engineer, I. C. (No. 2246 P. W. of 11-11-89)

The Supt. P. W. Accounts (No. 141 of 11-11-89)

The extensions of the extraordinary leave granted to Mr. C. M. Smith Executive Engineer 3rd grade was due to his not being prepared to leave Madras by the 1st steamer of the 9th Nov 1889, though he knew on the 2nd Nov that his appointment to Bellary had been cancelled.

2. In these circumstances the Govt is not prepared to recommend any relaxation of the rules.
