Chapat 27th June 1890

Sir

With reference to G. O. No 1439 W. dated 21st June 1890 appointing me as temporary Quartermaster on Rs 100. and posting me to the Rookhkhulga Division of the I Circle. I beg you will kindly grant me a passage ticket to Gopalspore and an advance of Rupees one hundred to enable me to prepare for my journey and for residence in such a distant place.

I am aware that advances are not usually given to temporary employees but I beg that mine may be treated as a special case considering that some

Some money (Rs 150) is due to me by the Superintending Engineer & Circle for some survey work in the Chingleput Division.

My only reason for applying for the advance is to enable me to join my appointment as soon as possible as otherwise I would have to delay till I was paid by the Superintending Engineer & Circle.

I remain
Sir

Your most obedient servant

In para. 1362 of the Code it is laid down that no person making a tender can demand an explanation of the cause of its rejection.

The tender of Mr.
Ashworth like a contractor working for the M. W. Dept.
has been refused
by the P. E. M. W. D, and reason assigned, viz that P. E. & Gov. of Madras consider that he should not be entrusted with any more contracts.

The Gov. of Madras
have however in no way prohibited the employment of Mr.
Ashworth as a contractor.

It remains for the
P. E. M. W. to consider whether, with the circumstances of his previous employment of Mr. Ashworth before him, he will understand the responsibility of accepting Mr. Ashworth as a contractor or not.

It is not considered right that this responsibility should devolve on P. & S.
