14TH JUNE 1890, No. 220, MARINE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. E. O'CONOR, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 23rd May 1890, No. 2537.

In continuation of the correspondence ending with the communication from the Military Department, No. 138, dated the 4th February 1890, I am directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the contract of the 17th February 1888 between the Government and the British India Steam Navigation Company (Limited), for the conveyance of Government passengers and stores in the Bay of Bengal, is to be regarded as a contract applying exclusively to Government Military (including Marine) passengers and Military (including Marine) stores.

2. For all other Government passengers and for stores which are not Military (including Marine) stores, any means of conveyance may be employed that may be most suitable, but I am to state that the vessels of the British India Steam Navigation Company (Limited) should be preferentially employed, provided that the conditions offered are in all respects equal to those offered by other vessels available for use by Government.

ORDER—dated 14th June 1890, No. 220, Marine.

Communicated to Departments of the Secretariat and all Heads of Departments, for information and guidance.
