* The Secretary to the Government of Madras

* The Chief Commissioner, Burma

Sir

In continuation of the correspondence arising with the communication from the Military Department of the 12th Feb^ry 1890 and with reference to your telegram of the 21st Feb^ry 1890 I am directed to state for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council that the contract of the 12th Feb^ry 1890 between the Government and the British India Steam Navigation Company, Limited, for the conveyance of Government passengers and stores in the Bay of Bengal is to be regarded as a contract applying exclusively to Government Military (including Marine) passengers and Military (including Marine) stores.

2. For all other Government passengers and for for stores which are not Military (including Marine) stores, any means of conveyance may be employed that may be most suitable, but I am to state that the vessels of the British Indian Steam Navigation Company Limited, should be preferentially employed, provided that the conditions offered are in all respects equal to those offered by other vessels available for use by Government.

I have &c &c
