21ST JUNE 1890, No. 720, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Sea Customs, dated Madras, 12th May 1890, No. 1126-G.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, dated 22nd May 1890, No. A.D.J.-121.

ORDER—dated 21st June 1890, No. 720, Pension.

Under articles 485 and 518 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations (1st edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Cola Moonesawmy Naidu, late tide-waiter, Sea Custom office, Madras, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (84) eighty-four, being seven months' pay, payable at Madras, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of seven years, eleven months and twenty-six days.

2. If the applicant had remained in service for a few days longer, the gratuity admissible would have been considerably increased, and the Collector recommends that the deficiency may be condoned. His attention is drawn to the fact that section 124 of the old code having been omitted from the present regulations, the Government no longer possesses the power of condoning deficiencies, and article 465, to which the Collector refers, deals only with the condonation of interruptions. The Government has, on more than one occasion, declared that premature retirements should, if possible, be avoided, and it desires to again impress upon all heads of departments the desirability of allowing public servants of some standing to complete such short periods of service as would entitle them to a higher pension.
