PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

from the Commissioner of Police, No 32, dated 17th March 1890.

There is a vacant plot of ground immediately opposite the present tank on the Southern side of the Dec house road which would form an excellent site. This land belongs to the Sri Parthasarathi Pagoda in Triplicane. The Trustee of the temple was willing to grant a perpetual lease of the land at a nominal rent but it was considered inadvisable that Government should build on rented land. The Trustee of the temple has kindly waived the objection to a sale and consented to sell the land required at the rate of Rs 150 per ground. This it has been ascertained from the Deputy Collector's office, is a reasonable price. The plot marked yellow on the accompanying plan is the proposed site and contains a few square feet more than one ground. The acquisition would be a valuable building site, and commands two main roads.

2. I have the honor therefore to request sanction to purchase this plot and that the Government Solicitor may be instructed to prepare the necessary deeds.

Order 29th March 1890. No 597

The purchase of the site referred to is sanctioned and the Govt Solicitor will prepare the necessary deeds. If there is any question as to the power of the trustee of the temple to dispose of the property, the Commissioner of Police should take steps for its acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act No I of 1870.
