OF MADRAS

(P. W.
DEPT.)

EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS.

Madras, 25 June 1890.

OFFICE No. 3736.

To
W.

Madras Code para 612 seems incorrect. Under this rule a warrant officer holding an honorary commission is entitled to draw, while on furlough, his warrant pay and allowances and half his departmental or staff pay, that is to say he is entitled to draw the allowances admissible under chapter II of the Furlough Regulations of 1868, which code para 611 expressly forbids.

2. The rule in question was based on the Government of India P.W.D. Code, volume I (edition of 1878), chapter V, para 43 as amended by standing order No 226 of 1883, but in the revised edition (1886) of the Government of India Code, the rule was omitted, and the omission was overlooked here as the modification of the Government of India Code was not made by standing order & there was no statement or memorandum issued with the revised code showing the alterations made therein. The rule however as I have stated above, seems incorrect, and as it has been expunged from the Government of India Code please obtain the approval of Government to its being expunged from the Madras Code also.

As it is understood that volume I of the Government of India Code is now under revision, I beg to suggest that the Government of India be asked to issue a memorandum with the revised edition detailing the alterations introduced otherwise than by standing orders.
