Cot. J. P. P. P. R. E.
Chief Engineer & Secretary to Govt.
P. W. D.

Sir

I beg very respectfully and humbly to request that you will be pleased to reconsider my unfortunate case. I have been dismissed from Dept. by G. O. No. 306 W. of 29.1.90 after a service of nearly 24 years.

If you will kindly read over the explanation I sent in and the appeal I made, I feel certain you will find that the punishment inflicted is far in excess of the fault committed. When I submitted the Completion Report, which is the unhappy cause of all my trouble, I had no dishonest intention whatever, I firmly believed I was doing duty as the Accountant and Head of the Office in which I was employed. All that I beg of you now is to grant me a pension at least for the service I have rendered, and enable to live and support my family. Men in the Dept who have been actually dishonest have been dealt with more leniently than I have.

special application on been. During the whole of my service I never committed a fault and this is the first time that I have unwittingly offended.

Dec to remain
