To

W.

Under code para 162, candidates who have passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University are exempted from passing Part I of the Examination for promotion to accountant 2nd grade, and on every occasion such exemption is claimed, the Accountant General P.W.D. requires the candidate to furnish a certificate of his having passed that examination.

2. As this requirement of the Accountant General is not laid down in the code I beg to forward herewith for the approval of the Government a draft standing order to the P.W.D. Code providing for what is required.

Each named candidate gets a certificate which is in the nature of a diploma. The Reg. of the University will not give an other certificate afterwards, ~~and~~ ^{in case of loss and} ~~which~~ ^{except on payment of a fee of Rs} I don't think a man should be required to give up his original certificate, with his cost to pay this fee. Now is the best of the certificate much use without proof of the identity of the person. The names of named candidates are published in the G.O. to the best advantage. It would be to require from the party a certificate from some responsible public functionary that he is the person
