Sir,

With reference to Government of India Circular No. 25, Public Works, which has been forwarded to me direct by Col. Pemberton, and of which I enclose a copy, I have the honor to report for the information of Government, that a special class for Draftsmen and Estimators was formed in this College in the year 1880. From that time to the present, six hundred and four persons have obtained Certificates as Draftsmen and Estimators the majority of whom were trained in the Institution.
The class has lately been much improved, I enclose, Prospective and Model Drawing, Machine Drawing and Geographical Drahaving been introduced as subjects of qualification. Most of the work of the students is executed from specifications, examples and actual measurements.

I have the
