Notes of examination by H. Rainier Esquire, of the Cash and Service label accounts, Service books and travelling Allowance charges in the office of the Superintending Engineer, to circle at Bichinopoly on the 20th December 1889.

The charges as audited by the Examiner in Contingent bills from January to November 1889 inclusive were compared with the entries in the Cash account and found to agree. * * * * *

* * * * *

2. The charges for Service labels were traced in the account of postages which was in order.

3. The accounts are sufficiently clear and neat.

4. Service books were examined and found generally in order except that the Service book of Clerk Andrew Lazarus requires reattribution, the date of last attestation being 3rd April 1884. Also a Service book has not been but should be opened for lascar Palani Audi who was appointed in October last.

5. The travelling allowance journals of office and petty establishments from January to August

August 1889 inclusive were audited and found generally in order.

The claims are submitted on odd bits of paper and are not signed by the Controlling officers (the Superintending Engineers)

6. A supply of new forms of Journal (No. 152A) introduced (by Standing Order No 150 of 1888) in the book of forms should be obtained by the Superintending Engineers and used by the members of the office and petty establishments.
