SUBJECT.

A. M. Foord Esquire,
Executive Engineer.
Submits an application
from ——— for 18 months
furlough from 15—3—90.

No. 2948 dt 21.1.90

To W. Enc 2

Forwarded with the remark that Mr Foord will probably be entitled to a few days less furlough than he has applied for, but that it is impossible to report with precision upon Mr A. M. Foord's application for furlough for 18 months from 15th March 1890, in the absence of any regular letter of appointment. It is therefore suggested that the Government of India be asked to furnish the usual letter of appointment or to state the date from which Mr Foord's service for furlough and pension should commence

2. If there were a letter of appointment, and it did not specify any date, then under Civil Service Regulations article 691 and note 1 service would commence from 1st October 1879, but it does not seem justifiable to assume that the same date should be taken in the absence of a letter of appointment

3. Mr Foord joined his first appointment in India on the forenoon of 25th October 1879
