10TH JANUARY 1890, No. 17A, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—letter from the Accountant-General, dated 27th November 1889, No. I.A.D.-391, Pension.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting a letter from the Treasury Deputy Collector, Tinnevely, stating that one Kistnasami Naidu, a pensioner, now dead, drew his pension while he was re-employed, and reporting that steps are being taken to recover the amount from the family of the deceased.

ORDER—dated 10th January 1890, No. 17A, Pension.

It having come to the notice of Government that the rules on the subject of re-employment of pensioners are still disregarded, notwithstanding the fact that they have been in existence for so long a time, His Excellency the Governor in Council considers it necessary to call the special attention of all officers concerned to the provisions of article 564* of the Civil Service Regulations, and to warn them that, in future, if any over-payment is made to a re-employed pensioner in consequence of their neglect of the instructions contained in the said article, the amount of such over-payment will be recovered from them.
