From W. B. DEWINTON, Esq., Executive Engineer, Presidency Division, to the Superintending Engineer, V Circle, dated Bangalore, 4th December 1889,
No. 1020 S.E.

With reference to your No. 304 C., of 24th September 1889, I have the honor to report that a house has been, with your approval, hired for the occupation of the subordinates of various departments entitled to quarters, who are passing through or temporarily stationed in Madras.

2. The landlord's name is Mr. C. Patch. The house is situated in Ritherdon Road, Vepery, adjacent to Doveton College, and is in the most convenient position available.

3. The rent is Rs. 120 per mensem, which includes a gardener, paid by the landlord.

4. The house is available for one year certain, and is in good order, fitted with rattan mats and punkahs, and ready for immediate occupation.

5. The usual ordinary repairs to be executed by the owner.

6. A plan of the house is annexed, by which you will perceive that it includes accommodation for three families of the highest grade of either Warrant officers, Medical subordinates or Sergeants.

7. I beg for formal sanction to the hiring of this house, so that an agreement may be entered into with the landlord.
