GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 28th October 1890, No. 836, Revenue.

Miscellaneous.

It having been brought to the notice of Government that a large tract of accretion to the foreshore on the south side of the southern arm of the Harbour, which is likely to become a very valuable property, is not being properly taken care of and that private persons are using the land for rope-twisting, weaving and other purposes, the attention of the Collector of Madras will be drawn to this fact and he will be directed to forbid, by notice boards or in such other manner as he may consider expedient, all use of the land by private persons for any purpose whatever except under his special permission and license.
